The 2009 report was followed by a study of the return on investment if SC reached the goal outlined in the report of increasing educational attainment. The study, The Economic Return on Investment in SC Higher Education, was conducted by the Moore School of Business and released in August 2009. The focus was on the ROI of moving SC from 23% bachelor’s degree attainment to 30%. It is accessible from the general link above or directly at:
